

CONTINUING LEARNING EDUCATION
NACM 2026 Annual Conference
July 12-16, 2026
Jacksonville, Florida

The National Association for Court Management provides a certificate for the total number of hours of judicial educational programs attended during a conference. Please check the educational sessions that you attend and return the form per instructions. (12.50 total hours possible)

TOTAL EDUCATION HOURS = _____

Name	Email
Address	Telephone
City	State
	Zip

Monday, July 13, 2026
8:45 am – 10:00 am
Opening Plenary: Charting the Course: Securing the Rule of Law in an AI-Drive World	1.25	☐
10:30 am – 11:45 am Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
CORE Purposes and Responsibilities: Purpose Driven Courts in a Time of Disruption	1.25	☐
Accessing Your Courthouse for Access to Justice	1.25	☐
NCSC's New Strategic Agenda: Our Leadership Vision	1.25	☐
Translating the Tech: Making Gen AI Work for Court Operations	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by Thomson Reuters: The AI Policy Gap: Governing AI Before It Governs You	1.25	☐
2:00 pm – 3:15 pm Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
CORE Public Trust and Confidence	1.25	☐
A Blueprint for Expanding Access to Justice	1.25	☐
Bench to Block: Preserving Trust in a Changing Era	1.25	☐
Designing Workshops for Court Teams	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by For The Record: Building Resilient Courts: Modernization, Compliance, and Record Integrity in the AI Age	1.25	☐
3:30 pm – 4:45 pm Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
CORE Workforce Management: Enhancing Public Trust and Confidence by Developing Staff	1.25	☐

Wounds to Wins – Sustainable Leadership in Turbulent Times	1.25	☐
The Final Frontier: Rule of Law in the Age of Algorithms	1.25	☐
Leadership, Motivation, and Teamwork – Managing NextGen Courts	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by Amazon Web Services: AI in the Courtroom: Secure Ethical Frameworks for Judicial Leadership	1.25	☐
Tuesday, July 14, 2026
9:00 am – 10:15 am
Plenary Session presented by Tyler Technologies: Tending the Light: Preserving the Rule of Law in an Age of Rapid Change	1.25	☐
10:30 am – 11:45 am Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
Ethics, Court, and Work in the Age of Rapid Change	1.25	☐
Real World Uses of AI in the Arizona Courts	1.25	☐
Courts and AI: Building a Future-Ready Justice Workforce	1.25	☐
Problem Solving to Advance the Rule of Law	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by i3 Verticals: Funding Innovation Without a Hefty Price Tag: How Courts Can Embrace New Technologies	1.25	☐
1:30 pm – 2:45 pm Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
Super Session: Leadership of the State Courts: Past, Present, and Future	1.25	☐
3:00 pm – 4:15 pm Concurrent Workshops (please check appropriate session)
CORE Budget and Fiscal Management	1.25	☐
Is Workplace Culture Important to Court Leaders?	1.25	☐
Action Over Apathy: Leading for Judicial Independence	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by Dewberry: Courthouse Security in an Evolving Threat Environment	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by Mission Critical Partners: Technology Project Governance	1.25	☐

Wednesday, July 15, 2026
8:45 am – 10:00 am
Super Session: Judicial Security and the Rule of Law: Lessons Learned and Future Directions	1.25	☐
Sponsored Session presented by equivalent: People Power: The Difference in Court Tech Project Success	1.25	☐
Thursday, July 16, 2026
10:00 am – 11:15 am
Closing Plenary: I Quit So You Don't Have To: Flipping the Success Script from Burned-Out to Badass	1.25	☐

Neither the National Association for Court Management (NACM) nor the National Center for State Courts bear responsibility with applying for or certifying any program for CLE credits. Individual NACM members bear the full responsibility for submitting all information required for CLE credits with their accreditation council as well as all costs and attendance validation that may be required.