NACM 41st President

2025-2026

Kelly Hutton

Board Accomplishments

During Kelly Hutton's term as President of the National Association for Court Management, she:

- Selected a new Learning Management System to modernize NACM's delivery of education, support the CORE® Champion Program, track training and certifications, and create a foundation for future online learning.
- Initiated development of a new Technology CORE® Curriculum addressing technology, artificial intelligence, data, and digital transformation and their growing impact on court management.
- Advanced a new NACM Website and Member Portal to improve access to educational resources, organizational information, professional development opportunities, and member benefits.
- Expanded CORE Unleashed, bringing NACM education directly to state and local court communities and increasing access to professional development for court professionals across the country.
- Expanded and strengthened the CORE® Champion Program, continuing NACM's commitment to accessible, practical education for court professionals at all stages of their careers.
- Established Dual Membership Agreements with the Conference of Court Public Information Officers (CCPIO), the National Association of State Judicial Educators (NASJE), and the National Association of Probate Court Officers (NAPCO), creating new opportunities for collaboration and professional engagement.
- Formalized and strengthened organizational partnerships, fostering collaboration with national organizations that share NACM's commitment to effective court administration and professional development.
- Strengthened collaboration with the National Center for State Courts and other national court organizations, encouraging complementary educational opportunities and greater value for the court community.
- Initiated development of a Community Outreach Guide providing court professionals with practical tools and strategies for engaging their communities and increasing understanding of the courts.
- Expanded NACM's focus on community outreach and education, recognizing the important role court professionals play in connecting courts with the communities they serve.
- Focused on member engagement and the member experience, creating new opportunities for members to connect with NACM, participate in its work, and access resources and professional development.
- Built a foundation for NACM's continued growth and modernization, advancing initiatives designed to extend beyond a single presidential term and support the organization's future.
